

Album of the RENEWABLES 2004 Summit in Bonn

Over 3000 delegates from 154 nations gathered at the RENEWABLES 2004 Summit in Bonn where ISEO proved with its World Energy Survey that Renewable Energies can easily replace all mineral resources !

Plenary Assembly with 154 governments attending the RENEWABLES 2004 Summit 1-4 June 2004 at the old German Parliament Hall in Bonn. In the front row of the speaker's table: Environment & Renewable Energy Minister Trittin (center) with BMU Director General Hinrichs-Rahlwes, and Mohamed T. El-Ashri, former Head of GEF to his right, and Economic Development Minister Heidemarie Wieczorek-Zeul to his left.

From left to right: Conference Host, Minister Trittin, and his Director-General Hinrichs-Rahlwes on his right, MdB and parliamentary Environment Commission Chairman, Professor Ernst-Ulrich von Weizsäcker, while addressing the importance of parliaments; Slovenian Biomass President & ISEO VP Martina Sumenjak.

From left to right: Side Event on Global Change with Prof. Hartmut Grassl, Max Planck Institute, Chairman, Prof. José Goldemberg, ex-Environment and Science & Technology Minister Brazil (far left) and Professor Joachim Luther, Director of the Fraunhofer Institute for Solar Energy (far right); Swiss Energy, Environment, Transport & Communications Councillor Moritz Leuenberger co-chairing the plenary session with Energy Minister Mohamed Boutaleb, Morocco, when ISEO made the statement about harmonization and standards; Some Swiss delegates with Councillor Leuenberger (center), Dr. Nobs, BUWAL and Nathalie Bösch, Foreign Affairs to his left, DOE Head Dr. Steinmann; J.C. Füeg and ISEO co-founder Roswitha Grass (to his right).

From left to right: ISEO Executive Secretary Gustav R. Grob addressing the Side Event on Sustainable Energy Development, Workshop on Energy Development in Less Developed Countries, Roswitha Grass with newly elected ISEO Vice President Professor Ernst Bucher, Constance University, and Annette Schiller, Manager of the Congress Organization Ombiasy, Leipzig and Director of the German-Madagascar Association organizing their regional renewable energy conference ERMADA 2004 October 12-15, 2004.

Hungarian NGO delegate Varro Sandor with Norwegian Foreign Ministry Delegate Dr. Inger-Marie Bjonness, Columbian Executive Director of the Energy Development Institute and Engineering Dean Alfredo Mena Pachano, Vice Minister of Environment, Vicente Rodriguez Siosa, Equatorial Guinea, Secretary General Rakotondrainibe Jean Herivelo, Energy Ministry, Madagascar, National Assembly Deputy Mara Niarisy, Madagascar, Agronome Expert Aurelia Moll-Sidi, Madagascar at ISEO workshop on developing countries.

From l. to r.: ISEO Side Event Audience with Lennart Ljungblom, BIOENERGY INTERNATIONAL, Sweden

ISEO and IGA (International Geothermal Association) Member Dr. Lucien Bronicki, ORMAT, Israel, ISEO Members Roswitha Grass, Prof. Geoffrey Boyle, UK, Prof. José Puig, Spain, Martina Sumenjaj, Slovenia, Lennart Ljungblom, Sweden, G.R. Grob and Franziska Heusser, Switzerland; Dr. Ing. Harald Scholz, EU Joint Research Center, Ispra, with Executive Secretary G.R. Grob; Dr. Preben Maegaard, President, WVEA